

Location

Legian

Legian is just north of Kuta and it is a little more laid back. The shopping, restaurants and nightlife are excellent and plentiful and you can spend hours enjoying the walks amongst Legian's small intimate streets. The beach offers excellent surfing. Legian is a favourite of many past visitors and a popular alternative to Kuta. Seminyak is a past favourite of many visitors to Bali. It still offers peace and tranquility while the excitement and busy lifestyle of Kuta is just a short ten minute drive away. You can enjoy uncrowded beaches or just explore the area at an unhurried pace. You will see the influence of the Europeans with their unique galleries, shops and boutiques. Furniture and pottery shops abound in the area and offer some of Bali's best bargains. Seminyak is for those wanting a relaxing holiday and a laid back lifestyle.

Kori Restaurant and Bar is in Poppies Lane II, Kuta, Right in the heart of triving, bustling Kuta. 100 meters down the lane from Jalan Legian. If coming by taxi, pull right up to our entry "Kori".
